

Kevin J. Origoni
Director / Information Technology & Security

- Over 30 years experience in Information Systems supporting customer service, financial, lease accounting and mortgage banking industries. Mr. Origoni has managed all areas of data processing production, production control, turnkey and legacy system support for lease accounting and loan origination systems, network infrastructure security and development, early warning systems, and Helpdesk Tier I & Tier II support.
- Held positions as VP / Information Technology for The New York Mortgage Company, LLC, VP / Information Technology for Wells Fargo Financial Leasing, Director / Information Technology for Finova Capital Corp, Director / Information Technology for Conseco Capital, Director / Information Technology for Bell Atlantic TriCon Leasing Corp, Manager / Data Center TRW Customer Service Division.
- Experience includes RJE, mainframe, mid-range, client-server and desktop computing platforms utilizing OS/MVS, VAX-VMS, HP/UX and Microsoft Windows. Software and hardware development, relational databases, third and fourth generation programming languages, web development, document imaging, telephony systems, VOIP, disaster planning and recovery, call center management, Six-Sigma disciplines.
- Responsibilities have included project planning, business continuity and disaster recovery planning, budgetary analysis and planning, strategic technology acquisitions, outsourcing, data center implementations, local and wide area network implementations in support of branch rollouts and relocations, creating IT policies and procedures per SOX-404 and audit guidelines, implementing Helpdesk tracking and dashboard systems, deployment and support of telephony and VOIP systems, due diligence for mergers and acquisitions.
- Currently oversees IT and security matters for LCG.